A. In the event that it exercises the warrant and acquires stock pursuant to that exercise and the stock pays dividends, it will get dividends.

O. And if the warrant is not exercised? A. Then it won't get dividends.

Q. What about if there is a default under the deferred payment note?

violate 524(g). BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Okay. Well, the way that this provision is written suggests that any procedures other than those that are set forth in this Plan would defeat the purposes of Section 524(g).

Is that what is intended here?

MR. FINCH: Object to form. MS. HARDING: Object to form.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Are there other options, is

A. My recollection is that the Trust has the right to get 50.1 percent of the stock of the Debtor under those circumstances.

But, again, the terms of -that's a very complicated set of documents, and the precise terms of that are whatever the document states. I can only give you a sort of a very generalized description.

Q. Okay. Let me draw your attention now down to (I), condition (I). A. Yes, I see it.

> O. What does that mean? MS. HARDING: Object to

THE WITNESS: Well, what it means is that if you didn't have a TDP, which includes things like a payment percentage and mechanisms for trying to trying to limit the ways in which the Trust expends monies on claims, and you just had sort of a come in, sue the Trust

the question?

 A. If the question is could one hypothesize a somewhat different set of TDPs that had somewhat different procedures, the answer is depending on what that different TDP set of procedures was, you might be able to say the same thing about it.

The purpose of this thing is to say that this structure, according to the court, satisfies the requirements of 524(g) that say that you have to establish this requirement.

I mean, this is a finding of fact that is intended to have the court rule that the Plan does, in fact, meet the requirements of a subsection of 524(g).

Q. You could, in fact, have a Plan that met the qualifications for 524(g) that actually had a role for asbestos insurance entities, correct?

MR. FINCH: Object to form. MS. HARDING: Object to
